Output

The image consists of three vertically stacked screenshots of a web-based JavaScript quiz application. All three screenshots have a blue header bar with the text "JavaScript Quiz Application" and "Test your knowledge with this quick quiz".

Screenshot 3 (Bottom): A message box displays "Quiz Completed!". Below it, it says "Your final score: 5". At the bottom, it says "Your Score: 5" and "Quiz Completed".
